Fill in the descriptions below for each operator. You can use this in the future as a reference guide to help you with your labs.

Operator	Description
+	An operator that allows to operands to be added together in a process also known as addition
-	The process of removing items from a group of others by using the process of subtraction
*	A vector space of functions that allows numbers to be combined together and create a grou of numbers
/	By computation find the remainder of a function f(x) allows numbers to be divided by one another
%	Represents the percentage of one number compared to another